

Feline Facts

Here's a page of facts about our furry feline friends. Read it out loud.

Cats are the second most popular pets in the UK, but it isn't just us who enjoy cats as pets...

The ancient Egyptians worshipped cats. In fact, one of their gods was a cat. Cats were useful pets for the Egyptians to have around, because they would hunt rats and snakes.

Now you might think you're already an expert on cats, but here are a few facts that maybe you didn't know: a group of cats is called a clowder, a male cat is known as a tomcat and a female is known as a queen.
